Board Objective:

1. The RCN, like all other components of the CAF, was tasked by the CDS to implement a training programme in support of OPERATION HONOUR. At the same time, NPTG was beginning development of training in support of the new RCN Code of Conduct and the revised Guide to the Divisional System. Analysis by NPTG showed that much of this material was related and that there were considerable gaps in the content across both Officer and NCM training. To make training effective, efficient and applicable to both Regular & Reserve Force sailors, NPTG combined all requirements into a single programme known as Leadership, Respect & Honour (LR&H). The LR&H programme flows across all NCM Rank Qualifications (RQs) & Officer Courses (i.e. MARS II, D Levels, ORO, etc.) and ties content to job requirements and expectations. NTDC(P) was tasked to develop this QSP to meet the requirements of the LRH programme and RCN Professional Development through individual training.

2. This objective is based on the requirement to create a QSP, an individual training instrument, which addresses professional development for all RCN personnel. The following orders are applicable:

a. FRAG O 001 RCN OP ORDER-OPERATION HONOUR - 11 July 2016 which states:

(1) “PARA 6 - I remind all RCN members that they must act when witnessing HISB. There will be no innocent bystander to misconduct. To that end, a Leadership, Respect, Honour training module will be included in all levels of the RCN professional development and will provide bystander awareness and intervention tools and guidelines.”

b. RCN OPERATION HONOUR Order which states:

(1) “PARA 10 - Commander Naval Training Systems (CNTS) will oversee the development and delivery of a modernized divisional system education program to include in it the CAF curriculum on harmful and inappropriate sexual behaviour once developed and promulgated.”

(2) TASKS - CNTS:

(a) Review and update current training and education material and process on the subject of the divisional system and sexual harassment and misconduct;

(b) Develop a bank of case study material which can be accessed by all units to support professional development training;

(c) BPT assist CMP in the development of training and education sessions; and

(d) Ensure sustained reinforcement of key messages in these orders to students in all RCN schools.

Specification Task – No Train Decisions:

See Annex B

Discussions / Decisions:

3. Enabling Objective Numbering. The EO have been numbered in such a way that the first decimal relates to the module i.e. EO 009.30 is related to Module 3 and EO 009.50 is related to Module 5.

4. The Enabling Objectives are listed in the modules in the suggested sequencing and not numerically.

5. In Module 7, EOs 018.70 and 011.70 should be instructed first. EOs 009.70, 010.70, 011.71, 012.70, 015.70, 016.70, and 017.70 should be presented together in a discussion / case study format.

Board Meeting - 31 Jan 17

6. The meeting was conducted by J. Romaniec (co-chair).

7. The purpose of this meeting was to:

   a. define how the Board Objective will be achieved;

   b. To establish some operating norms e.g. tm mbr availability;

   c. To introduce Tm mbrs and allow each to indicate their:

      (1) Area of expertise or interest in this project, and

      (2) Availability or other commitments.

      (Secretarial Note: PO Frisby could not attend and sent an email to the QSPWB to introduce herself)

QSP Writing Board (QSPWB) Requirement

8. The QSP Writing Board (QSPWB) is required to produce, by 2017 Mar 31:

   a. A 70% plus QSP IAW NPTORD 4500-22; and

   b. A NPTORD – A Directive from CNPTG to enforce implementation of the QSP.

QSP Board Process

9. The Co-chair explained how this QSP will be developed differently from normal QSP development procedures in that:

a. Normally a QSP addresses performance oriented training for a select group within an military occupation and that:

(1) It is normal to start with JBOS or Spec form which a scalar is developed to identify Performance Objectives (POs) and Enabling Objectives (EOs) and that:

(a) POs set standards; and

(b) EOs indicate what is to be taught to achieve the standard.

b. the development of the LRH QSP would be accomplished by:

(1) Using material that had been developed in 2016 (see Annex J – Course History) which included:

(a) A table (see image below) was distributed at the meeting which identified 11 subject areas to be trained, in conjunction with existent Naval courses during seven different points of NCM and Officer Development periods, and

(b) Master lesson plans which would be the basis of EOs that would enable the development of the POs.

c. Mr. Ford presented an explanation of the table and noted that Operation Honour would require about 25% of the proposed time allocated for PD. CPO 1 Feltham explained that the material developed had not been piloted; and

d. Given that this QSP would encompass more training that applied to a far greater population than is normal for a QSP (training for a select group within an military occupation), the Trg dev Specialist observed that the LRH QSP is akin to the Time Lord technology found in the BBC program Dr. WHO in being much bigger on the inside.

FOR DISCUSSION

IMAGE OF LRH PD TABLE WITH TRG DEV SPECIALIST ANNOTATIONS IN RED

Target Population and Lesson Specification Development

10. There was extensive discussion about:

a. the requirement to provide training across career spectrum for every member of navy;

b. when the training should be conducted and how it would fit with or complement other training; and

c. considering reducing the 7 PD columns to 5 as follows:

	INITIAL INDOCTRINATION	JR LDR	MIDDLE LDR	SR LDR	COMD
NCM	OS	RQMS	PO1 ?	CHOD CPO2 ?	COMD TM CRSE CPO 1
OFFR	MARS 11 NCDT	MARS IV SLT A DIV O	D LEVEL Lt(N) / LCDR	HOD LCDR	COMD TM CRSE CDR

11. The Board determined that:

a. zero occurrence was not achievable but zero tolerance and ensuring that leaders at all levels were made aware of how to respond to incidents of HISB could be achieved;

b. any change in the proposed number of PD would have to be confirmed with the stakeholders at NPTG HQ;

c. the table in general reflects dev of RCN pers for SEA OPS and that some personnel who serve in the RCN may miss parts of this progressive PD program, e.g.:

(1) RCN who have extensive shore based postings; and

(2) support trades such as RMS clerks, logisticians or med staff who may not start their careers in the RCN.

d. it would initially dev PD for:

(1) RQMS and MARS IV:

(a) PD for both these two groups is nearly identical; and

(b) it is important to ensure Junior Leaders are prepared to respond to HISB IAW OPERATION HONOUR and the RCN Code of Conduct.

(2) RQOS and MARS II, as this would support the imperative to ensure Bystander Training is provided ASAP to RCN personnel. However, PD RQOS needs to be coordinated with an ongoing the Naval Environmental Indoctrination Program (NEIP) development, which may already address PD at that level as well as for MARS II.

e. subsequent PD development would evolve from the initial development of RQMS and MARS IV PD, as it would either build upon it or scale down, i.e., building in two directions from the middle;

f. there is a requirement to seek clarification with NPTG HQ with respect to PD for the NAVRES. The Trg Dev Specialist suggested this may be restricted to:

(1) History;

(2) Code of Conduct; and

(3) Operation Honour.

12. The Trg Dev Specialist noted that since much of the material is the same for both Officer and NCM in each training level, and that this QSP differs from the norm, the POs and EOs formats may be adjusted to indicate applicability for both NCMs and Officers, thereby accelerating development and reducing workload. For example, standards and teaching points may be placed in a table indicating applicability. A format will be developed as the QSPWB develops its writing norms.

Scalar and POs

13. The Trg Dev Specialist noted that a QSP requires to be derived from specifications from which, as noted earlier, POs and subsequently EOs are derived.

14. The board accepted the interim solution that:

a. the co-chairs would research the NCM and Officer General Specifications as well as any other pertinent RCN PD directives and develop a scalar from them; and

b. confirm that such a scalar would ideally result in POs corresponding to the concurrent development of EOs and lesson Specifications and adjust either the scalar or the EOs as necessary to ensure congruity.

Evaluation

15. There was discussion about:

    a. tracking completion of the training; and

    b. tracking the success of the program.

16. The Trg Dev Specialist:

    a. with respect to tracking completion of training, recommended that each PD training level a unique MITE Code which would be granted upon completion of PD. If the PD was integrated into an RCN course then the QSP for the course would have to indicate the requirement to complete the PD training level and include its MITE Code in chapter 1 of the QSP. CPO 2 Clevett noted that assigning MITE Codes to individual modules is a normal RCN practice to facilitate integration of different types of training into one course;

    b. with respect to tracking success of the program, performance measures may have to be developed. The best measurement would come from a future AG report on HISB in the CAF indicating that the sexualized climate has been reduced or otherwise appropriately addressed; and

    c. with respect to individual student pass / fail evaluation, it may not be required as this is PD with a focus on education rather than job-based performance training. However, if required, it will emanate from the development of the EOs and Lesson Spec standards. This information will be integrated into Annex K – Evaluation matrix and reflected in Chapter 3 – Trainee Evaluation.

NPTORD, Implementation, Delivery and Conduct

17. The Trg Dev Specialist:

    a. noted the requirement to concurrently develop a NPTORD which directs the implementation of the LRH QSP with a view to ensuring the PD is implemented as written and not watered down or accorded lip service;

    b. suggested the QSPWB give consideration as to how this QSP will be “marketed” to the RCN and consider budgeting for travel for this purpose. These suggestions should be brought forward ASP to be placed into Annex I – costing; and

c. noted that implementation may be phased in slowly after evaluating the effectiveness and efficiency of initial PD conduct e.g. possibly as depicted in the tale below:

2017	2017 ?	2018	2018	2018	2019	2019
JNELP / MARS IV	RQOS / MARS II	RQPO2 INELP	RQLS QL5	HODS and CHODS	INELP/ ANELP D- Level	CTC

d. asked all members when developing their part of the QSP to “think outside the box” in considering instructors, instructional methods and learning materials e.g. the possible requirement to select certain RCN pers for specialized train the trainer sessions for delivery of Operation Honour related lessons.

Work Norms

18. All QSPWB are asked to be generally available 0930-1430 on each working day.

Board Meeting – 7 Feb 17

19. The Board reviewed the draft Annex C. Accepted.

20. The Board discussed if the Naval Environment Indoctrination Program (NEIP) that is currently in development covered any or all of the intended content of the first module of the LHR / RCN Professional Development Program. It was concluded that NEIP could be incorporated into the LHR / RCN Professional Development Program (LHR / RCP PD) and it was recommended that the recommendation of such be presented to CNPTG through the CO NTDC(P) REP and the CO NTDC(P). It was also recommended that a NPTORD be developed making the first module of the LHR / RCN PD a pre-requisite to RQ-OS and MARS II training.

21. Where / When to Train. Discussion of when/where to train various modules took place. Development Periods (DP) versus Rank Qualification (RQ) training was first considered. Other than the first module of LHR / RCN PD, it was determined that training should be tied to RQ coursing. It was agreed that this method would capture more personnel in the training system and alleviate any long periods without LHR / RCN PD training. Another factor affecting the decision is that current DP training such as INELP and ANELP is not presently mandatory.

22. Recommended training:

Module 1	pre RQ-OS/MARS II	2-4 day Formal Course
Module 2	RQ-LS	½ day Seminar*
Module 3	RQ-MS/MARS IV	2 day Formal Course
Module 4	RQ-PO2	½ - 1 day Seminar*
Module 5	D-Level / NTO /APS	TBD
Module 6	CHOD	TBD

* to focus on Operation HONOUR /Code of Conduct/ Defense Ethics
 case studies at the Command Leadership level

23. Changes to proposed EOs:

a. add “Role of CoC” and “Role of Supervisor” to Modules 1 and 2;

b. add “Mental Health” to LHR / RCN PD;

c. add “Personal Security” including IT and social media; and ensure Force Protection states are covered.

24. The board reviewed project timeline. A detailed timeline will be promulgated SEPCOR.

25. Mr. Romaniec explained the Master Lesson Specification to the Board and reviewed the proposed method and flow for completion / approval of QSP products (such as EOs).

26. Mr. Romaniec asked the Board members to consider and investigate any possible learning aids that may already exist, and if discovered, to bring forth to his attention.

Briefing given to CNPTG – 8 Feb 17

27. Issues identified:

a. NEIP and LRH overlap;

b. Not the same training being delivered to Officers and NCMs:

(1) 7 Times for NCM, 5 times for Officers;

c. Where to instruct non-MARS A/HOD and HOD;

d. HODs and CHODs course, challenge of getting the right students together;

e. What levels of this program are mandatory? (INELP/ANELP are not mandatory courses);

f. Training to be delivered at RQ levels or DP in order to deliver training to most, 95%plus, of RCN; and

g. NAVRES training: how to include NAVRES?

The following decisions were made:

28. NEIP:

a. Current NEIP development to be subsumed into LRH PD;

b. Training is mandatory;

c. Training to be identical for all RCN personnel, NCM or Officer upon initial/first posting, prior to commencement of RCN RQ-OS, MARS II courses (or equivalent);

d. To be scheduled and conducted prior to commencement of RCN RQOS, MARS courses (or equivalent);

e. To be scheduled in conjunction with the completion of BMQ;

f. There will be a separate MITE Code for NEIP module

29. A NPTORD should be promulgated directing that NEIP be taken by jr non-RCN pers, e.g. Cooks, Medical staff, TdevO's, Padres etc, upon initial/first posting to an RCN establishment.

30. INTEGRATION OF LRH MODULES

a. Training to be:

(1) identical for NCM and OFFR in RQMS / MARS IV Dev Pd;

(2) As similar as possible for all PD levels

(3) LRH trg to be integrated into "middle" of RQ and OFFR crses;

(4) f2f delivery is preferable therefore design course as such;

(5) Other NTO to take advantage of DL modules to be dev for NAVRES if not available for F2F/classroom delivery courses;

(6) There will be a separate CHOD crse;

(7) HOD will be incorporated into ORO crse; and

(8) HOD and CHOD require same LRH PD module;

b. Recognize that this PD prog will capture most but not all pers; some reliance placed on unit collective trg, CRR or unit PD days

31. RESOURCES

a. This program to be resource neutral;

b. Provide a range of qual instr who represent Navy Values; and

c. Recognized requirement for “specialized instr “ for Operation Honour portion.

32. NAVRES

a. Will take LRH modules on RQ and OFFR trg where possible otherwise DL (distributed learning method);

b. Consider Delivery of trg to NAVRES:

(1) through regional centres; or

(2) SME / instr travel to all stone frigates

33. SECURITY

a. Program exists, Include in NEIP only.

34. GUIDE TO DIV SYSTEM

a. Requires update but use as much as possible; and

b. Prep correspondence to DNavP&T and memo absolving CNPTG for resp for update.

20 Feb 17

TASK LIST AND SCALAR

35. The QSPWB reviewed the CAF General Specification task lists for NCM and Officer, including the related Sea Environmental Specifications to determine which ones would form the basis of training and education for the LRH Professional development program. The results are shown in Annex B Task List, and a draft scalar was prepared.

Board Meeting – 28 Feb 17

36. Reviewed the meeting the co-chairs had with NPTG HQ (CPO 1 Taylor). Of note, COMD NPTG's desire to utilize "Leader in the Divisional System" and "The Guide to Divisional System" as key references in the development of EOs and courseware.

37. Discussed and requested the Board look into the name of the course and consider if a more appropriate name representative of the course content was in order. Suggestions to CPO 2 Clevett by next meeting.
The draft QSP is now on the SharePoint site. Lt(N) Foscarini explained the use and naming conventions to be used.

38. Health and Wellness – Mental Health changed to Health and Wellness. Content to be coord with PSP.

39. Mr. Coles reviewed completed EOs and, wrt History, indicated that MARS 11 and MARS IV will have additional material building on the History portion delivered by LRH PD Prog.

40. CPO 2 Clevett suggested utilizing a "Module Number" system for the various levels of training and changing the EO numbering system to use the "decimal" to represent the associated Module the EO is related to (e.g. EO 010.30 is related to Module 3 and EO 010.40 is related to Module 4). The Board agreed to utilize this number system.

41. The review process will be done in the order the anticipated pilot program and imminent delivery as follows:

a. Module 3 – RQ-MS and MARS IV;

b. Module 1 – NEIP and MARS II; and

c. Module 7 – CTC.

42. PO 1 Frisby discussed references and queried on how detailed the references should be. It was agreed that general references such as just the publication will be used.

43. Lt(N) Foscarini will review Performance Objectives with related EOs.

44. The Board is to consider Chapter 1 - Name and Aim of Course and forward suggestion to Mr. Romaniec.

45. Annex I – Costing was discussed, noting concerns and issues with detailing an accurate estimate.

36. Future meetings will be moved to Mondays.

01 Mar 17

35. Maryse Neilson PSP Health Promotions attended a Meeting with Civ Jurek Romaniec, LT(N) Foscarini, CPO1 Feltam and Civ Peter Ford to discuss Health and well-being aspects of the LRH Program.

Health and Wellbeing:

a. QSP Scalar will be provided to Maryse by Civ Peter Ford;
b. Maryse will provide some teaching points at the various levels to the wellness strategy;
c. CPO1 Feltam and Civ Peter Ford will continue to liaise with Maryse for the Teaching points for Health and Well-Being.

Operation Honour

36. Operation Honour training that is being facilitated as a trial currently by PSP (CAF wide) was briefly discussed. Maryse was asked for her thoughts on this training; she will touch base with the OPI in COMOX for this New PSP led Trial (Operation Honour) for us to see the package they will be facilitating.

Board Meeting – 6 Mar 17

47. Mr. Romaniec will have Module 3 reviewed and ready for input to the QSP by 10 Mar 17. Modules 1 and 7 are ongoing and it is anticipated that the reviews will be done by 16 Mar 17.

48. Hyperlinks in references. The Board discussed and agreed to input a section of hyperlinks to websites in Annex A – References, understanding that some references may “die” over time. It is anticipated that the CCA should review the references annually and update as necessary.

49. It was agreed to title the QSP: “RCN Professional Development Programme.”

NOTE At CNPTG decision brief 6 Apr 17, it was directed that the name of this programme will be the “RCN LRH Programme.”

50. CPO 2 Clevett will be responsible to draft the required paperwork for MITE code designations for each Module of training.

51. The Board is to consider Instructional Strategy Options and be prepared to discuss at the next meeting. This included Instructor qualifications for delivering Operation honour related training.

52. Annex G – Suggested Sequencing and Timings. Lt(N) Foscarini and CPO 1 Feltham will work on Annex G, soliciting Training Manager input through LCdr Ball and Lt(N) Meadly of NPTG HQ.

53. Chapter 2: Performance Objectives have been developed into two sets:

a. Module 1 – PO 001 to PO 008 NEIP and MARS II training; and

b. Modules 2 to 7 – PO 009 to PO 016.

54. Assessment of trainees was discussed. The intent remains to have the instructor assess trainee progress during instruction as set-out in Chapter 3 of this QSP:

a. In order to successfully complete any module in this QSP, trainees must:

(1) attend all parts of a module; and

(2) adhere to:

(a) the CAF Code of Values and Ethics; and

(b) NAVORD 1001-0 RCN Code of Conduct.

55. Mr. Coles and Mr. Ford will be the overall OPI for Lesson Specifications.

Board Meeting – 13 Mar 17

56. Chapter 2 continues to be updated. It is expected that the final revision should be ready by 20 Mar 17.

57. Chapter 3 is ready for review by the Board. Comments and input to Mr. Romaniec.

58. Chapter 4 updates:

a. CPO 2 Clevett reviewed the revised numbering conventions for the EOs. The change was required to align with the 2 sets of POs developed last week (at para 41).
b. A branding issue with the EO title “naval information management” and “ethical conduct” was discussed and the Board was asked to consider better nomenclature for subject EOs;

c. CPO 1 Feltham provided an update to Health and Wellbeing, noting the issues involved with securing “outside” resources for instruction / lesson development; and

a. Modules 3 and 1 are ready for final review.

59. The co-chairs stressed the requirement for the completion of the following Annexes in order to complete Chapter 1:
a. Annex G – sequencing and timings
b. Annex I – costing

60. Task List. It was determined that the specification term “Naval Information management Systems” was too operationally focused and misleading with the requirement to learn about divisional technology support systems for the RCN divisional system and personnel administration. The term Administrative management technology or administrative resources was to be used instead.

61. Development and delivery. There was extensive discussion about developing a central bank of instructor resources. This may be coord with NTDC(P) NLSC.

62. Qualification Code: it was determined that since not all personnel would complete all modules there was no need for a National Qualification Code.

63. The following challenges were enumerated:

a. Providing computer access for module 1
b. Availability of competent Instructors
c. Integration into existent NTS courses

Scalar and Task List Alignment Meeting – 15 Mar 17

64. A sub-team met to review the Scalar and the Task List to ensure that no tasks were omitted, to ensure the tasks were in a logical place and sequence within the scalar, and, to verify alignment with the EOs. The results are shown in Annex B Task List and led to:

a. the following Train/No train task decisions being revised;

(1) F1.040 resolve systemic problems F1.035 identify systemic problems were determined to be beyond the unit level responsibilities and therefore not applicable to this programme;

(2) C1.035 recognize operational stress injury was determined to be too specific an expectation for non-medically trained personnel to adjudicate; and

(3) Task OGS C3.3.020 recognize signs and symptoms of stress was deemed to be an appropriate expectation for ldrs in the divisional system.

b. the creation of 10 POs for LS and above / Lt(N) and above..

Board Meeting – 20 Mar 17

65. Operation Honour. In order to comply with requirements it was determined that CSRT Bystander trg was to be incorporated into all modules for the time being and subsequently reduced to only being CSRT HISB trg after approx. 2 years. The latter includes a review of bystander actions.

22 -29 Mar 17

66. During this period there was a series of meetings; the topics and outcomes are listed in the paragraphs below.

67. Evaluation: A meeting was conducted between the CO, Cdr Hooper, and XO, LCdr Zubrinich of NTDC(P) and QSPWB mbrs Lt(N) Foscarini and Mr Romaniec to assess the impact of adding a Pass/Fail type question to Operation Honour trg and about preparing module attendees for Command Board Questions.

68. The following points were made by QSPWB mbrs with respect to module attendee evaluation including:

a. As noted previously in this record: The best measurement would come from a future AG report on HISB in the CAF indicating that the sexualized climate has been reduced or otherwise appropriately addressed;

b. this is a Professional Development Programme with a focus on education rather than job-based performance training: formal evaluation may stifle participation or learning;

c. Validity of assessment – is it possible to design and administer questions beyond simple Recall of information in the short duration of the modules?

d. The implications of attendee failure – what happens?

e. That the QSPWB would have timings for comparing the programme as designed without evaluation and the inclusion of simple evaluation.

69. The following post meeting points were made in an email from the XO (Sent: March-21, Subject: FW: OP HONOUR Board Question Requirement):

a. NTDC (P) will devote resources to developing the Operation HONOUR questions in the very near future as it is closely linked with our ongoing efforts in developing the RCN's LRH and Operation HONOUR Program, but this will be directed by the CO; till then, do not shift resources/fire yet/ until directed; and

b. convening authority will need to devise their own questions for respective boards in the interim and can consult NTDC(P) for input if needed.

70. Module 1 - Health and Well Being EO – Chaplain Support. A meeting between Formation Padre (Maj Donovan) and Mr Ford resulted in:

a. Chaplain support for providing a Chaplain for the TP in this EO;

b. identifying resources for this EO in the vent a Chaplain is not available;

c. a request to have Chaplains newly posted to the RCN to attend module 1

71. Discipline EO. A meeting between CPO 1 Anderson (AJAG) and Mr. Ford resulted in identifying resources and references for these EOs.

72. MITE Codes. A meeting between NPTGHQ Staff (SO Quality Control LCdr P. Ball, and Lt(N) A. Smart, Naval Training System Manager Civ T, Berube) and QSPWB members (CPO 2 Clevett and Mr Romaniec) was held to identify potential overlaps with

CAF and Naval Leadership training (JNELP, INELP, ANELP) and the RCN Professional Development Programme prior to the issuing of MITE CODES. The following points were made:

a. the RCN LRH Programme is based on both the General Specifications and Naval Environmental Specification requirements, however, the RCN LRH:
   (1) addresses specific Naval requirements not addressed elsewhere stemming from the Internal Review Of Personal Conduct Within The RCN (2014 Dec);

   (2) builds on CAF courses and fills a gap because the Naval Ldrshp courses are not yet mandatory;

b. the RCN LRH will have to be continuously monitored and reviewed to ensure it is modified should there be changes causing overlap;

c. that there is a MITE code for Operation Honour Bystander training which will have to be added to the QSP; and

d. that NPTGHQ is satisfied that a MITE Code can be issued for each of the 7 Modules in the QSP for the RCN LRH.

73. Module 1 Implementation of Pilot. A meeting between Campus Support (P), LCdr Sheppard and CPO 2 Scalibrini and Mr Ford resulted in:

a. there is support for the goal of Module 1 (i.e. orientation to the RCN) as it would potentially reduce the burden on some Campus Support functions currently being provided to pre-OS and pre-MARS II students; and

b. BTL managers control course loading, not the School Campus Support:

   (1) Personnel pre-OS are managed by the Basic Training List (NCM BTL) Manager located in Borden;

   (2) Personnel pre-MARS and MARE trg are managed by the BTL Manager in Esquimalt;

c. it is not clear who is responsible for detailed course scheduling and procuring SME for some of the EOs; and

d. suggested that the following topics could be included in Module 1:

   (1) Pot (Cannabis) and steroids are illegal;

   (2) Tour – Cells and the AJAG Courtroom;

(3) Accommodations – Rules/Regs; and

(4) Leave process used by Fleet Schools.

74. 10 Aug 18 – A decision was made to convert the LRH Modules to individual QSPs. This was due to the increasing complexity of the modules and the difficulty to align the existing Performance Objectives across all modules.

1. The Internal Review of Personal Conduct within the RCN identified a number of issues and recommendations for their resolution. The ones shown in the table below indicate those which were deemed pertinent to the requirement for an RCN LRH Program. They were copied from the Internal Review as indicated.

Detailed Findings from the Report	Findings from Annex G	Recommendations from Annex G
Para 11.a.(3) The RCN has relied almost exclusively on informal socialization, drawn from DND/CAF sources, and reinforced in an ad-hoc manner by supervisors based on their experiences, judgement and understanding of conduct norms on and off duty. This informal education is inconsistent (i.e. from one unit to the next) because it is not linked to an RCN policy or procedure (references to DAODs that deal with conduct are notable documents, more so than the limited RCN comparable NAVORDs, or articles in SSOs). It relies on the sailor's immediate supervisor and the Divisional System to guide and mentor the sailor in a manner that mirrors the supervisor's own education while also taking into perspective the intent/ philosophy of the unit's Commanding Officer.	F3. There is limited guidance that communicates RCN expectations for personal conduct.	R3. Establish a NAVORD that details conduct expectations at all times and links excellence ashore with excellence at sea, regardless of mission. This NAVORD will be the source authority for an RCN Code of Conduct.

Para 12.a.(1) Formal training, written and supported by a Qualification Standard and Plan (QSP), that reinforces the importance of professionalism, personal conduct, and the expected behaviour of sailors, is most often embedded in CAF leadership and ethics training. A review of the curricula of the five major Navy training establishments showed that aside from conveying the expected behaviour while attending the school, there was limited recurring education on how the RCN expects its sailors to behave, perhaps due to Finding 3, which therefore leaves the onus on the Commandant/unit CO to convey his/her expectations;	F5. There is limited formal RCN education with respect to conveying and reinforcing conduct expectations.	R5. Consider implementing mandatory personal conduct training to be executed via Defence Learning Network (DLN).
Para 12.a.(2) Specifically for NCMs, CAF leadership courses that touch on personal conduct, such as Primary Leadership Qualification (PLQ), Intermediate Leadership Programme (ILP), Advanced Leadership Programme (ALP), Chief Qualification Course (CQC), and Senior Appointment Qualification (SQ), are consistently placed throughout the developmental periods. However, the time between developmental periods in an NCM's career vary greatly. For example, an NCM could be loaded on PLQ after only six years in the RCN or potentially much later in their career. Therefore, the reinforcement of these key lessons does not occur consistently throughout a career; and	As per F5 above	As per R5 above
Para 12.a.(3) In officer training, there are common modules on leadership at the Maritime Surface and Sub-Surface (MARS II) level, after basic military training, but well before reaching the Occupational Functional Point (OFP). However, once an officer embarks on Military Occupational Structure (MOS)-specific training, the emphasis is placed on technical training and not personal conduct, nor the reinforcement of RCN behavioural expectations.	As per F5 above	As per R5 above

Para 12.b.(3) ……However, there are few exercises within the teaching modules that help junior officers develop practical and tactical methods to execute the duties required to become an effective Divisional Officer (one who is well-equipped to lead sailors in the area of personal conduct).	Finding 6: The Divisional System, which is unique to the RCN, provides a framework for sound leadership for supervisors. However, it is only taught on a limited basis through the rank and file.
Para 12.c.(1) …Finding 7 speaks to the need to provide a more robust education at the outset of an NCM's career. As previously discussed,……, Until a junior NCM is eligible and selected for PLQ, they only receive formal training in CAF policies, as it relates to conduct, during their Basic Training. Selection for PLQ therefore, is too late in the sailors' development to have the first formal introduction to the procedures and policies (summary trials, remedial measures, mental health programs, etc.) that deal with behaviour and conduct-related issues because they will already be junior supervisors within their departments; and	F7. There is a limited awareness, at the junior NCM level, of personal conduct policies as they relate to RCN expectations and the mechanisms to deal with misconduct.	R7. Utilize the Naval Training System to enhance awareness at the junior NCM level of policies and procedures as they relate to personal conduct.
(2) Supported by the interview process, the PMC/ VPMC interviews indicated that higher level CAF policies, such as DAODs and the Code of Service Discipline, are not well understood by junior sailors. Therefore, unless a sailor personally experiences the application of conduct policies, such as a Summary Trial, the consequences and support programs available to manage personal conduct are not widely understood. The Guide to the Divisional System and the practical tools that are available to both the sailor and the Divisional System are not extensively taught to junior NCMs, since no RCN courses exist. During the interviews, it was identified that the teaching of the Divisional System is done primarily through first-hand experience and the sailor's own involvement with the Divisional System. The level of interaction with supervisors and the quality of	As per F7 above	As per R7 above mentorship and training could not be confirmed, as it varies from unit to unit. Responses indicated that this mentorship and training is not always at the level required for a sailor to gain a full appreciation of the RCN's expectations.

Para 13.b.(2) (2) …… practically every Coxswain stated during the interview process that the Coxswain Course, taken prior to assuming their appointment, was instrumental in providing them the latest trends and expectations for their position. Looking at these comments as a whole, it is more important than ever to ensure that Command Teams are given clear, consistent, and regular direction on all aspects relating to governing conduct within their unit.	F10. Superior Commander's Guidance is important for Command Teams to understand the expectations governing personal conduct at the unit level.	R10. a. Re-invigorate Command Team Training with a "Personal Conduct Module".

2. In early Jan 2016 NPTG HQ identified a need for LRH content to be developed for future training. CNTPG provided a draft matrix to be developed into a more mature document. Once approved by CNTPG Draft master lesson plans were developed by middle Oct 2016.

3. The BN for COMMARPAC - RCN Leadership, Respect & Honour, dated 20 August 2016, states:

> "6. NPTG continues to develop the leadership respect & Honour program as an integrated approach to OPERATION HONOUR, the RCN Code of Conduct and Guide to the Divisional System. Program requirements are being embedded inside existing training and tailored to the supervisory and leadership expectations of each rank level in the Navy"

2017

4. Prior to the first QSP writing board meeting, members of the team were briefed and given direction by CO Command and Leadership Division Naval Training Development Centre NTDC (Pacific), A. Aujla, on 2017 Jan 24 and 26, and subsequently by CO NTDC(P).

5. The following points were discussed during the meetings with the CO Command & Leadership NTDC(P) of Jan 24 and 26:

a. WRT Operation Honour:

b.

(1) CDS priority 1 and CDS wants proof that it is being implemented;

(2) initial focus of training is to be for officer, and NCM indoctrination in JNELP and MARS II:

(a) Part of bigger picture in Naval Divisional system:

(i) Integration into professional courses;

(ii) Beyond current, for future generations; and

(iii) Can't touch RMC program despite repetition of HISB training for some.

(3) the challenge of ensuring integrity, not allowing for watering down;

(4) of content or message when incorporated into training;

(5) there is a reporting APP for Operation Honour;

(6) there may be a requirement for 2 teachers per class:

(a) Determine if there is a requirement for specially trained instructors;

(b) PSP may be tasked to provide instructors;

(c) consideration should be given to Mil and civ instructor to ensure reinforcement of RCN Leadership message;

(d) challenge of instructor providing training about a sensitive matter to both genders; and

(e) must be careful of rank unduly influencing classroom activities;

(7) Avoid overdoing training:

(a) The Navy Code of Conduct serves as a platform for delivery of Operation Honour material;

c. The following are to be produced for End march 2017 for incorporation into teaching modules for this spring /summer:

(1) a QSP; and

(2) a NPTORD;

d. There is a requirement to develop assessment tools for measuring the program's success, possibly by DP.

6. The following points discussed during the first meeting were reinforced by CO NTDC (P), Cdr S.E. Hooper, during a meeting conducted on 2017 Jan 30:

a. this is the most important project in the formation and must not fail;

b. Operation Honour was incorporated into the requirement to reinforce Leadership Respect and Honour (LRH) through Professional Development in the RCN;

c. the Operation Honour components must be delivered by suitable instructors with appropriate sensitivity. This may generate a requirement for instructor development;

d. Operation Honour Bystander training is the most important to achieve initially; and

e. given that this program affects all RCN personnel (RegF and NAVRES) the following need to be identified as soon as possible:

(1) Delivery Plans;

(2) Test Bed Locations; and

(3) Any additional resources or budgeting.

ANNEX K – ASSESSMENT PLAN

No formal testing or evaluation will be given during the RCN LRH Programme. Student learning and understanding will be confirmed by instructor during training.
